

PCTS Local Driving and Parking Directions

Princeton University
Princeton Center for Theoretical Science
Jadwin Hall, Room 400
Princeton, NJ 08544
Phone 609-258-1398

Visitor Parking

- The Visitor parking garage is called the Princeton University “Stadium Drive Parking Garage”. This is located on the corner of Faculty Road and Fitzrandolph Road.
- You must register your car on line.

If you must park in front of Jadwin Hall, please email cborsack@princeton.edu. There are a few spots but they are heavily restricted, and include two handicapped spots.

LOCAL DRIVING DIRECTIONS

To park directly in front of Jadwin Hall, if you have a handicap parking permit:

From Route 1, Exit onto Washington Road TOWARDS PRINCETON.

- Stay on Washington Road driving over a bridge and through the traffic light (crossing over Faculty Road.)
- Make the first right hand turn that you can into the driveway directly under the pedestrian bridge. You will enter the loading dock area for Jadwin Hall and main entrance to the Frick Chemistry Building.
- Continue driving straight towards the football stadium and follow the road around, which will curve towards your left. You should be driving along the football stadium (on your right) and Jadwin Hall will be on your left.
- Make a sharp left hand turn into the driveway that takes you into the very small parking lot directly in front of Jadwin Hall. Park in a handicapped parking spot or you will get a ticket.
- If you get to Peyton Hall (Astrophysics building with arched windows) then you have gone too far.

To park in Visitor's Lot “Stadium Parking Garage”—Corner of Faculty Road and Fitz Randolph Road

Visitors should park in the Stadium Parking Garage located on the corner of Faculty Road and Fitz Randolph Rd. You must register your car.

From Route 1, exit onto Washington Road TOWARDS PRINCETON (571 West)

- Stay on Washington Road (driving over a bridge), and
- Make a right at the first traffic light onto Faculty Road and continue straight.
- Go straight, make a left onto Fitz Randolph Road and a left into the parking garage.

From the Stadium Parking Garage you can take the shuttle bus to the Goheen Walk stop on Washington Road and walk to Jadwin Hall. Or it's a 10 minute walk to Jadwin Hall from the garage.